Some Jokers Joked. No little excitement was caused Ellicott City Thursday morning by the report that Mr. George Carroll, a young Baltimorean, who is summering at Patapsco Heights, had been waylaid and robbed while on his way to his boardinghouse from the train, on which he had arrived at about midnight on his return from Baltimore. Although it has turned out that a number of Mr. Carroll's friends had planned and successfully carried into effect a practical joke, yet in the termination of the matter Thursday evening the victim had the satisfaction of knowing that his tormentors were made to experience a discomfiture almost equal to his own. The circumstances surrounding the affair are these: Wednesday night young Carroll, who had remained in town to attend a baseball game, arrived here a short time before midnight, and was going up the avenue to his hotel. When he was about to enter the hotel grounds he was accosted date for the House of Delegates. by five men, who demanded that he surrender his valuables. Feeling sure that they were real robbers, he had nothing to do but to hand over to the supposed footpads his valuables, which consisted of his gold watch and chain, a commutation railroad ticket, bankbook and jewels. He was then released, and he

Mrs. Thomas G. Carroll, who are spending the summer there. Early Thursday morning the case wa put into the hands of State's Attorney Joseph D. McGuire, who is also staying temporarily at the hotel. About the time Thursday morning that Attorney Mc-Guire was beginning to probe into the mysteries of the affair, it suddenly became known that Mr. Carroll had been made the victim of a practical joke by his own friends. State's Attorney Mc Guire, however, did not intend that the jokers should have the laugh all on their own side, and caused bogus writs to be issued and served on the funmakers, who were required to appear before a lictitious officer of the law late in the evening. It is not necessary to state how great was the relief to the young men when they realized that the legal procedure against them was only a "take." It was evident, however, that they resolved never to attempt again to play the role of highwaymen, even in jest.

Accident at Woodstock.

Mr. Emory Blake, of Baltimore City, and his wife are spending the summer at the residence of Mr. Oscar Shipley, in Howard county, near Woodstock. On returning from church, at Granite, Baltimore county, about five o'clock Sunday afternoon, and on driving up the approach that leads to the bridge which crosses the Patapsco from the Baltimore county side, toward Woodstock, they met a double team coming in the opposite direction, and tried to back their horses out of the way. The vehicle went against the railing on the side of the approach, which, giving way, carriage, horses and occupants all went over, falling on the banks of the Patapsco some the Courthouse during the first three people of this neighborhood who made ten or fifteen feet below, demolishing the | days of the September court to receive | up a jolly party indulging in a straw

Successful Removal of a Cancer. At different times many things are brought to THE TIMES for exhibition, but never before, we belive a full grown cancer. Mr. Nathan Cavey, Sr., a wellknown farmer of Illchester, had for some time been suffering with a severe pain in his hand. Being an active, energetic man, he took little notice of it at an early hour Tuesday morning. until the swelling became so painful that he was conpelled to call in his physician. On examination he advised Mr. Cavey to consult Prof. A. Smith, of Baltimore, who pronounced the swelling to be cancer Mr. Cavey placed himself in the hands of Prof. Smith, but seemed to get no relief. By the advice of friends he consulted the Rev. A. M. Evers, of Hagestown, Md., who enjoys a wide reputatation for his many wonderful cures of cancers, tumors, etc. Mr. Cavey underwent the special course of treatment described by Mr. Evers, with the result that after a few weeks the cancer parted from the flesh and was removed whole, without any other operation. It is as large as an ordinary hen's egg. Mr. Cavey, says that all pain has left and expects within a week to have the full use of his hand. People who are familiar with this cure consider it remarkable. The cancer, preserved in alcohol, is at

About 11:30 o'clock Friday night of last week as the watchman at the Ilchester Cotton Mills, situated two miles from Ellicott City, was striking time in the upper portion of the mill some person or persons entered the lower room and cut a piece out of the main belt about five feet in length and carried it away. The belt is fifteen inches wide, and as a result the factory, employing several hundred hands, could not be run Saturday, and the damage and loss to the company is very considerable. Others offenses of scarcely a less serious nature have occured there within the last few months. One night ten warps were cut, and other belts have been cut at other times, but never taken away. It is thought it was done by some person with malicious intent as well as

About the same time that the recent over the store near the mill, containing a lot of goods belonging to a fair that was being held there, was broken open and a lot of the goods taken. The Baltimore County officials are making strenuous efforts to get hold of a clue that will lead to the arrest of the depredators.

THE BOULEVARD LINE.

Messrs. E. D. Smith & Co., of Philadelphia, contractors for the construction of the Columbia and Maryland Electric Railway, have awarded the contract for the remaining work on the line between Baltimore and Ellicott City to the Shafer, Nichols, Watkins Company formerly of Louisville, Ky., now of 11 Wall street, New York city. The main work of grading and filling yet to be done is between Benzinger's Lane and Ellicott City, a distance of two miles. At the other end of the line M. F. CUMMUTATION RATES! The B. alid O. Makes a Reduction of About Twenty-five Per Celif. General Passenger Agent Charles O Scull, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, has completed a revision headquarters in Ellicott City Monday of commutation rates for passengers on the Baltimore and Ohio in the neighborhood of Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia and Pittsburg, which will result was a poor workingman and had been in a reduction of about 25 per cent. on existing prices.

The new rates will go into effect September 1. For the neighborhood of Baltimore their scope will extend east to Havre de Grace and west to Laurel, on the Metropolitan Branch, and to Mount Airy, on the main line.

The company now issues a family ticket for fifty trips at the rate of two cents per mile, which can be used by any member of a family and by servants or his head, and telling him he must go visitors. These tickets are to be issued with them. He made no resistance, from September 1 at the rate of one and being badly frightened, and they tied a a half cents a mile. As an example of the reduction, a fifty-trip family ticket between Baltimore and Laurel now costs $21.30 The price will be reduced to $16. The Ellicott City ticket will be reduced on masks. They dragged him about a from $15 to $11 32, the Relay ticket from $9 to $6 25, and the Lorely ticket, good tearing off his clothing, applied tar and for fifty trips, from $17.60 to $13.20. The tickets are good until the end of the year in which they are issued. At the same time a new kind of ticket will be sold for use on the Washington

Branch. There will be a coupon or sheet and that the authorities would take the month; a family ticket, good for 50 rides, limited to the year of issue; a two-day excursion ticket, good for a single round trip, and the single straight fare ticket. As illustrating the tendency of railroads to foster passenger traffic between large cities and outlying towns a few miles distant an examination of the rates at which the different kinds of tickets are sold will be interesting. The actual cost of a trip from Baltimore to Laurel under the new rates is as follows: Single fare, 65 cents; two-day excursion rate, 521 cents; ten-trip ticket 421 cents fifty-trip ticket at reduced rate, 32 cents; monthly ticket, 15 cents; quarterly tickets, 10 cents. Mr. Scull concedes as a foregone con clusion that the trolley roads will acquire practically all the passenger business within the cities and the thickly populated sections in the immediate suburbs, but he is not ready to conced that the trolley will take the place of steam for long distance trayel or beyond a limited circumference. To illustrate his idea he drew a circle with a radius of six miles, with the City Hall as the centre, the area thus denoted being thickly populated. The trolley roads are entirely dependent on passengers for business, and the number of passengers in this area is so great that the trolley road is warranted in giving frequent service, with which the ordinary long-distance steam road cannot compete Consequently the steam roads will have to give up most of the passenger business within this area, but Mr. Scull believes that ithere is room for steam railroad passenger business beyond the twenty miles from the City Hall, Mr. Scull says the steam cars can run at ex- tisement. press speed across the six-mile belt and beat the electric roads into the more sparsely section, which, on account of the sparseness of the population, will not warrant the electric roads in giving as frequent service as in the thickly settled sections. LISBON.

BOMB WORDERFUL HISTORY. Editor Times:

It is reported that a syndicate composed of wealthy capitalists headed by that indefatigable worker and | Bro. Romuald, provincial. Among them York and Chicago. This company has seeker after senatorial honors in November next, G. dd., have obtained an option on all the property, one acre deep on each side of the Triadelphia pike from tian Kneipp, of Woerishofen, Bavaria, the Shipley mill road to the Dorsey' mill has authorized this company to use his road, a distance of two miles. All the road, a distance of two miles. All the Gregory, who leaves for an institution land not built on, will be laid off into in Philadelphia; Bro. Albian Faber is to acre building lots. This will take in the three villages of Isaacsville, Old Glenelg and Concord. The pike will be widened to sixty feet. Shade trees of a new variety of chestnut from the Indian Territory are to be planted on each side of the lots. The ex-Indian agent has selected chestnuts because of a youthful reminiscence connected with that tree. He says that his first pocket money was made by the sale of the brown nuts, hulled out with his naked heel, that he had to get permission of his neighborsthe Clarks and Owings-who at that time owned all the land in his section, his father being a very poor man. With his characteristic modesty, he referred to the early struggle of his youth, how he had to walk five miles to school, plodding along bare-footed beside his neighbor, James Clark, who always rode, that he

He has a surprise in store As the good book tells us he wandered off and associated with strange people bargains will be picked up out of his Here also was the original garden o Eden. It was here that Cain killed Abel. If this is a fact, then Cain and Abel were American citizens, and America is the real cradle of the race. Egypt was colonized from Yucatan. The Sphynx is a monument erected to the memory of Abel by his disconsolate widow, and that the Greek alphabet is simply a Yucataneous version of the destruction of the lost Atlantis. This being an established fact, the new city of Chichin-Itza must in time become famous. On one of its lots a Maya Temple should be built to be used as a museum for Howard who have Indian relics would consent to take some little interest in the matter after the temple is built, and have their familiar with this matter, (and I know of no one more competent, or who will have more leisure after November, or take greater pride in such matters than Attorney McGuire) much valuable information might be expected. Then, it has been well-known that the cultured at the newness and rawness of everyearden of Eden to our national

It is true that nothing is said about probably to the fact that long since it ages fell in love with Yucatan's Queen, built its wonderful city of Chichin-Itza in honor of mother Eve. Owing to some family difficulties ,he probably sailed back to Ireland leaving Cain and Abel joint rulers of America. Shortly after the lost continent of Atlantis was submergoff all land communication between the were probably the only living creatures that survived this terrible disaster. The Ark, according to Spanish legend landed tempted to show the quartering of his family on the roof of Noah's Ark. Now. there is nothing irreverent or skeptical have an account of this famous fratri-Egyptians' [priest informed Solon when he visited them six hundred years before the Christian era, that there had been a terrible cataclysm, during which a great island "The land of Mu," situated in the Atlantic Ocean had disappeared, and that all communication between Egypt and "the land of the west" had absolutely ceased from that time. Thus the fact seems to be established that there formly did exist an island-continent, situated in the midst of the Atlantic Ocean, that this submersion took place 11.500 years ago, and that the account given by

Plato of the destruction of Atlantis is correct. The naming of this little town by these gentlemen carries us back over the past, and brings in review some wonderful events in the history of our race. Which side of the house did Cain get his bad blood?

Mr. Editor: It has been for many years quite a common occurrence before the elections when you meet a candidate to have him invite you to a cigar, occasionally when fire-water is obtainable "a smile" on him; but it seems the Fourth district of Old Howard is trying to discover a new "fad." Our candidate for the State Senate, ex-Indian Agent Day, is employing the pair of white ponies he brought from the Territory to convey him and his peaches over the county during his campaign offering the voter a peach while soliciting his vote The peach is not costly yet quite enjoyable if without the fur, therefore I would suggest to Mr. Day that he always be prepared with a knife to remove the objectionable peel otherwise his peaches may not have the desired effect in securing him votes. I would also suggest to our Democratic candidate for the Senate to use pears

as they are more luscious and juicy and will save knifing. A REPUBLICAN.

FORD'S GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Week of September 2-The Laugable Farce Comedy-"Our Flat,"-The London and New York Success, Presenting the Talented Comedicane, Emily Bancker-And an Excellent Comedy Company. An actress new to Baltimore as a star,

but a favorite of its theatre-goers and a very prosperous musical farce comedy, seen four or five years ago at Ford's Theatre, are coming here next week. The one is Miss Emily Bancker and the other Our Flat. Our Flat is a bright, sparkling farce which holds one of the best records for long runs. At the Strand Theatre in London it had a run of 780 nights, and after a comparatively brief interval a reprise which netted it hundreds of more performances. The Loncounty American antiquities. If parties | don public still considers it the funniest of all plays of that class. It was brought to America, and it instantly grew into relies classed and labeled by some one favor with the New York play-goers, to whom it was shown one hundred nights at the Lyceum Theatre. Our Flat deals with the troubles which arise from the installment plan of buying household furniture and depicts in a life-like manner the evils attendant on that much abused system. Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester element of our citizenship have chafed are two young persons who have rushed into matrimony on the Micawber printhing in this county. Now that we can ciple and who are living from hand to claim the tomb of Abel and add the mouth on a top-floor flat; husband and wife at the same time striving hard to get a foothold in the literary world where they, like many other deluded mortals, think they can ultimately acthe thanks of the people of the district quire glory and wealth. Early in their for their undertaking, and for calling career, however, they are overwhelmed attention to the great South American by debt, and their flat is invaded by a continual stream of creditors. The sergrandfather Adam and grandmother Eve, vants refuse to work and the cook two very important personages, owing threatens to leave, and when the excitement is at its highest in walk three men was demonstrated that Ireland was the from the furniture dealer to carry out birth place of Adam and being the sole | the carpets, beds, etc., because the last proprietor of the world, in one of his voy- payment has not been made. Just as the lilat has been made bare Mrs. Sylvester receives a note informing her that a play written by her has been accepted, and that the manager is coming to settle as to its price. Now comes the need of ingenuity to refurnish the flat, so that the manager may be received with due ed, with every living thing on it, cutting | dignity, and of course the woman, as usual, provides the ingenuity. To see two continents, Noah and his family Mrs. Sylvester with the assistance of the cook, improvising furniture with soap boxes, barrels, trunks, ironing-board, a bath-tub, a clothes-horse and things of in that country, as a Spanish grandee at- that kind, is no doubt a revelation to the average housekeeper. A royal looking couch, for example, fashioned out of three wine cases, an ironing board, a pair about this. In the book of Genesis we of pillows and an Indian shawl-the last supposed to be a wedding gift of Her cide, of Noah's Ark, and his family. The Majesty Queen Victoria to a relative of Mrs. Sylvester. Then there's a fluffy screen made of a clothes-horse and a few yards of drapery. A huge sitz bath covered with a lightly drawn picture sash, is transformed into a very inviting Sleepy Holly chair. Miss Emily Bancker, the charming commedienne, plays the roll of Mrs. Sylvester, and in looks and as an artiste, is a feast for the eyes and the mind. Miss Bancker, first came into prominence as leading actress of the late Rosina Vokes' Company. Her triumphs have followed close upon one another, and last season she became the star of the Our Flat Company. Her success as Mrs. Sylvester has been phenomenal.

Her company is composed of talented people. Admission 25 and 50 cents. Matinees Wednesday and Saturday.
Week of September 9. The Jolly Comedian, Peter F. Dailey, in his new play, "A Night Clerk."

HARRIS' ACADMY OF MUSIC. Week of Monday September 2.-Wm. A. Brady's Famous Scenic Production,

"Old Glory."

"Old Glory" is a scenic production of reat magnitude and each act is cleimed o be a revelation in stage mechanism. The play depicts a romantic occurrence which took place on the Chilian coast in which the cruiser "Baltimore" figures, An attempt is made to destroy the vessel by extinguishing the coast light. A young lady, the heroine of the play, is seen going hand over hand on a single strand of cable from shore to lighthouse. She relights the big beacon and the vessel is saved. This is but one of the the many graphic scenes in the play, altogether making it one of the most exciting and interesting of plays. Ten Days Trip to Niagara Falts.
